About Mansfield

Settled in 1804, Asa Mann laid out a town plan on land he owned in Tioga County, becoming “Mann’s Field” in 1857. Mansfield is located in Tioga County, PA. In 1804, Tioga County was founded, originating from a section of Lycoming County, and was named after the Tioga River. Mansfield features many “Mom and Pa” family stores in the historic downtown area.

Some of which include coffee shops, antique stores, restaurants, lodging, a print shop, banks, ice cream shops, and more.

Local Events

July 4th Celebration

Tioga County's July 4th Celebration is a free family friendly event located in downtown Mansfield PA at Smythe Park Fireworks at dusk. Free Family Fun Community Event, with a parade at 2 and fireworks at dusk. They day is packed full of tons of activities including tractor pulls and soap box races.

Trunk or Treat:

Looking for a fun, safe, family friendly activity for your children on Halloween night? Come to Smythe Park with your best costume for this great event. Enjoy meeting different clubs at Mansfield University with cool trunk decorations and candy. Then enjoy Trick or Treating throughout town.

Luma in the Streets:

Alumni, family, and friends will return to Mansfield University to celebrate Light up Mansfield Again (LUMA)_ "LUMA in the Streets". A free, fun filled two-day event for both the Mansfield University campus community and the local communities that kicks off with a Special concert followed by a street fair, high school soccer game, a college football game, a battle of the bands, and other exciting events on Saturday, September 28th. We hope to see you all there!!

Hometown Hero Banners:

Hometown Hero Banners are hung around town. They are to honor past and present members in armed forces, and first responders. While driving through Mansfield you will see all our hometown heroes.

Citizen of the Year: This is a yearly award. Nomination slips with boxes are placed in local banks and the borough. Citizens within the community give nominations for who they think should be citizen of the year. The person that is chosen for citizen of the year is someone who goes above and beyond in the community. They contribute to social progress as well as creating an attractive society and inspiring others.

Youth Leaders of Tomorrow: Youth leadership is a program that helps provide community education, and leadership development training to high school students. It helps connect youth to their community and inspire them to be problem solvers, decision makers and future leaders.

Golf Tournament: An annual Golf tournament to help provide the community with the resources to grow and sustain all while playing golf. This tournament is also a way for businesses to contribute to an anniversary hole. There is 50/50 raffle, cash giveaway, and other miscellaneous prizes. All the funds that are raised go to the community.
